The committee closed its report by secommending that the members of the chamber talk up Richmond Day."

"A good word on the streets, in the unchreoms and overywhere is needed to counteract the impression that only a limited number can be accommunicated. On Richmond day we ought to bave not one less than 10,000 people at the exposition to give a creditable appearance. The Locomotive Works will hold their annual picnic on that day, and take down their whole force, together with their families. Many other large employers of labor will either shut down for the day or send down a large delegation of their working force. All Richmonders who can go should go for the honor of the city city as well as for the enjoyment of the day."

The Blair people wore a look of corresponding seriousness, for they realized that up to this point their man's chances had grown simmer as the count progressed.

LONDON, July 11.—A jury in the Kensington Coroner's Court to-day rendered a verdict of "death from natural causes" in the case of Mrs. Hancock, wife of Walter Swinburne Hancock, formerly an Episcopalian clergyman of Chicago, who died March 22d last, the cause of death being certificated as appendicitis. Owing to the suspicions of the woman's son, who le a lawyer, the body was exhumed to the cock poisoned his wind the croder to obtain her property. Hancock poisoned his wind the croder to obtain her property and the content of the stomath made at the instance of the home office showed no trace of poison.
